"I am the LORD, I have called You in righteousness, I will also hold You by the hand and watch over You, And I will appoint You as a covenant to the people, As a light to the nations," Isaiah 42:6 (NASB)

From scripture, we discover that a covenant not only represents an agreement between people or parties, but is also used as a divine title.

Christ was to be in Himself not the Mediator of the Covenant, but the Covenant, the meeting place between God and man, just as He is the Peace as well as the Peacemaker.

"This One will be our peace
When the Assyrian invades our land,
When he tramples on our citadels,
Then we will raise against him
Seven shepherds and eight leaders of men."
Micah 5:5 (NASB)

"For He Himself is our peace, who made both groups into one and broke down the barrier of the dividing wall," Ephesians 2:14 (NASB)

A Covenant of the people, Lord!
Alone we could not keep thy word;
In Christ, the covenant, we stand,
Thro' him we reach the better land.
